Please note that should rates stipulated in the collective agreement vary from rates stated in this posting, the rates stated in the collective agreement shall prevail.

Minimum Qualifications: Master's degree in Social Sciences or Humanities.

Preferred Qualifications: Ph.D. in progress or completed, in either Social Sciences or Humanities, with extensive and demonstrated academic experience in research and teaching on issues related to Chinese Canadian Studies. Demonstrated evidence of superior university teaching is preferred.

Relevant Criterion: Past teaching experience is the more relevant criterion than the need to acquire experience in respect of this posted position.

Description of Duties: Normal duties related to the design and teaching of a university credit course, including preparation and delivery of course content; development, administration and marking of assignments, tests and exams; calculation and submission of grades; holding regular office hours. Circumstances permitting, planning and convening presentations by guest speakers is central to this course. The delivery method for this course is currently in person. Please note that, in keeping with current circumstances, the course delivery method may change as determined by the Faculty or the College. Duties of this position shall be performed at the campus on which the position is located.

Application Process: All individuals interested in this position must submit the CUPE Local 3902 Unit 3 application form (<https://people.utoronto.ca/wp-content/uploads/sites/26/2016/04/Employment-CUPE-3902-Unit-3-Application-Form-June-2012b.pdf>), cover letter including the names of 2 references (preferably academic), examples of teaching evaluations (if available), and CV to: Khamla Sengthavy, Academic Liaison and Assistant to the Vice Principal at uc.programs@utoronto.ca.

If during the application and/or selection process you require accommodation due to a disability, please contact Khamla Sengthavy at Khamla.sengthavy@utoronto.ca or 416-978-8083.

A valid email address is required.

Posting Date: Friday 23 June 2023

Closing Date: Monday 17 July 2023
